2026 Rebecca Loudean Wells Scholarship Application

About

This scholarship fund was started in 2014 by an anonymous donor to honor the memory of former Metropolis Public Library Trustee Rebecca Loudean Wells. A $1,000 scholarship will be awarded to one student to go toward the cost of books or other educational supplies.

Eligibility

This scholarship is made available to any Massac County resident enrolled in an institution of higher learning who has expressed interest in studying library and information studies or has worked or volunteered at the library during their high school years.

To Apply

Please submit this application with a letter of interest at the Metropolis Public Library front desk or at library@metropolisil.gov. The deadline for applications is April 4th, 2026.
